The Scout rank I will be accompanying is:

Mon _____ Tue _____ Choices are Absent/Wolf/Bear/Webelos
 Wed _____ Thu _____ Fri _____ Choices are Absent/Tiger/Wolf/Bear/Webelos

This is very important because it determines t-shirt color and is used to make sure we have sufficient parents for each rank.

All adults must have taken the online Youth Protection Training on or after June 13, 2009. It is available at <http://www.olc.scouting.org/>. Click Youth Protection Training and then Connect and then Youth Protection Training on the General Tab. Afterwards you should choose View Certificate and then print your certificate of completion of Youth Protection Training.

Texas State Camp regulations require that every adult participating/volunteering at camp be a registered & trained volunteer. This means that you must complete an adult leader application if you are not already registered. We must have this returned by May 5th at the latest. You may get an adult leader application by contacting Ron Frederich (see below) or picking one up at the Cub Scout Roundtable or camp training sessions.

Registration Checklist.

- Registration and Letter of Agreement (This Form)
- Volunteer Information Sheet (required for all adults)

Make sure you keep a copy of all paperwork and get a receipt of payment.

Please submit all fees and paperwork to the registrar or camp director at the March, April, or May Roundtables or contact the camp director or registrar for further information.

Everyone (Cub Scout, Staff, Adult Volunteer, Jr. Volunteers) must have all paperwork on file in order to remain on camp premises (Texas State Day Camp Regulations & BSA Policy). We must have an adult application from all adults who are not already registered leaders.

Your pack must provide 1 adult volunteer (walking den leader) for every 5 boys per day per rank. They do not have to be the same adults every day. If there is an issue with this please contact Barbara Richer. Note – Camp Staff does not count toward the 1 adult volunteer per 5 boy policy.

The registration fee for each Cub Scout is $45 by 11PM CST 5/7/10 and $55 thereafter. Tigers are $20. List the rank of the boys as of September 1, 2010.
